$\Lambda$	1.

- What is the purpose of this ministry?
- How does it help fulfill the mission and vision of the church?
Write: "The purpose of the [Ministry Name] is to [briefly describe what the ministry does and why it exists]."
Step 2: Identify the Specific Role Title
Clearly define the name of the role within the ministry (e.g., Usher, Worship Leader, Greeter Coordinator).
Make the title specific and reflective of the actual function.

Step 3: Outline the Key Responsibilities List the main duties expected of someone serving in this role. Examples: - Arrive 30 minutes before service to set up. - Coordinate volunteer schedules. - Greet and welcome guests. Use bullet points and be action-oriented. Step 4: Define Time Commitment Clarify how much time is expected: - Weekly? Monthly? - Meeting attendance? - Special event requirements? Example:

"2 hours weekly, plus 1 monthly team meeting."

Step 5: Note Required Skills or Spiritual Gifts

Highlight relevant skills or gifts that help someone succeed in this role:

- Hospitality
- Administration
- Leadership

Step 6: Provide Accountability Structure Clarify who the volunteer reports to or collaborates with. Example: "Reports to the Worship Director. Collaborates with platform leaders and tech team."  Step 7: Describe Training or Support Available	- Teaching
Clarify who the volunteer reports to or collaborates with.  Example:  "Reports to the Worship Director. Collaborates with platform leaders and tech team."  Step 7: Describe Training or Support Available  Explain what kind of training or orientation the person will receive.  Example:	You may refer to results from a spiritual gifts assessment.

Step 8: Communicate the Term of Service
Set a clear term (e.g., 1 year, 6 months) with evaluations or check-ins.
This prevents burnout and allows opportunity for review and reassignment.
Step 9: Add a Mission Connection Statement
Include a short statement connecting the role to the larger mission of the church.
Example:
"This role supports the mission of making disciples by creating a welcoming environment where people can encounter God."
